

Cutting the Congo fiber optic cable

Last year, the DRC government entity, the Congo Optical Fiber Corporation (SOCOF), announced that Fast Congo had won the tender to deploy, operate ...

Last year, the DRC government entity, the Congo Optical Fiber Corporation (SOCOF), announced that Fast Congo had won the tender to deploy, operate and maintain the fiber optic link in an exclusive 15 ...

On the basis of this plan, it is planned to draw up full feasibility studies for the priority links that make up the national component of the regional CAB project. The beneficiaries of the project are ...

Pan-African operator Paratus Group's subsidiary, Fast Congo, has signed a long-term agreement with Group Vivendi Africa (GVA) to provide fiber capacity between Muanda and Kinshasa ...

A study published in June 2021 described how these cables suffered breaks in 2020 due to, in one instance, "an exceptionally large and powerful submarine mudslide that originated at the ...

The Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) government is working to improve the country's telecommunications infrastructure and expand access to telecom services nationwide.

The granting to Liquid Telecom of the license for the construction of its submarine fiber optic cable landing station seems mainly to be a government security measure following the cut of ...

Congo Canyon Ocean off the mouth of the Congo River in Africa. It i All these fibers were damaged on the same day, Central Africa and South Africa are very handicapped because we are ...

The lack of such high-speed cables poses a great problem for most African countries. The construction of both submarine cables and their terrestrial extensions is thus considered an important step to ...

Near the mouth of the Congo River, a recent underwater landslide in the Congo Canyon disrupted two vital submarine cables that deliver internet connectivity to Africa, as reported by Kentik, ...

The Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) government is working to improve the country's telecommunications infrastructure and expand access to telecom ...

Web: <https://www.tlaetsoglobal.co.za>