

Our Exterior Protection Experts provide Commercial and Residential Screen Rooms, Exterior Shutters & Storm Protection in Coastal South Carolina including the Savannah, Georgia area.

Fiberglass composite panels have been engineered to overcome many of the existing challenges associated with conventional hard-wearing armor plates. The two most widely-consumed materials ...

Fiberglass HS Storm Panels are designed for high impact performance. The panels are made with a proprietary resin mix and fiberglass fabric consisting of woven rovings to create panels that absorb ...

Designed to provide dependable hurricane protection, these panels are an economical choice for protecting windows and doors during severe weather. Locally manufactured in Ridgeland, SC, our ...

The Armor Screen wind abatement system is the patent-pending flexible storm protection system. It is designed to dissipate the energy of a projectile while deflecting it.

These exterior window treatments offer a sleek and modern approach to storm protection for homes and businesses in South Carolina. Their versatility, durability, and unique benefits make them a standout ...

The panels are built with multiple layers of e-glass woven roving fiberglass fabrics, our fiberglass armor ballistic panels can meet a variety of threat level protection requirements.

Crafted through a specialized, proprietary process that merges woven-roving fiberglass with resin, our bullet-resistant fiberglass wall panels deliver unparalleled protection.

These innovative panels offer cutting-edge storm safety with easy installation and full visibility. Locally manufactured in Ridgeland, SC, our fabric storm panels are a versatile and modern solution for ...

Web: <https://www.tlaetsoglobal.co.za>