

The Iraqi government has launched the execution of four major road and bridge projects in the provinces of Wasit and Najaf. The total budget for these projects is 374 billion Iraqi dinars (USD 285 million).

Aliedad General Construction is superior in the public works of roads and bridges in Iraq, as it is well recognized by providing the modern designs for the construction of bridges and tunnels that would ...

Since the ground of Baghdad consists of alluvium, the anchor of the ropes does not provide enough support in order to withstand the tensile forces, so the bridge is a so-called self-anchored (spurious) ...

The projects were unveiled via video conference, with government representatives at various sites. During his remarks, Al-Sudani outlined a long-term strategy to bolster Iraq's economic ...

This bridge will serve as a crucial connection between two high-traffic areas. By opting for ELKON, the company ensures the batching quality of the concrete, a key determinant in the ...

Ministry spokesperson Nabil Al-Saffar stated that work on the Abu Nuwas Street bridges, which run parallel to the Tigris River, is in advanced stages, including paving and lighting. One bridge...

Iraqi Prime Minister Mohammed Shia Al-Sudani launched several major infrastructure and industrial projects, underscoring his administration's dedication to fostering economic growth, ...

Since 2015, FFS has worked with the Government of Iraq and local actors to ensure safe, dignified, and voluntary returns and to lay the foundation for the successful reintegration of displaced populations ...

As you drive off the newly rehabilitated bridge towards Al-Shebabi, a sub-district within Anbar, you will be welcomed by factories lined up along both ...

Iraqi PM launches key projects to boost infrastructure industry & housing, including a vital bridge reopening & major industrial developments.

As you drive off the newly rehabilitated bridge towards Al-Shebabi, a sub-district within Anbar, you will be welcomed by factories lined up along both sides of the road.

Web: <https://www.tlaletsoglobal.co.za>