

The structured cabling industry in Jamaica has witnessed remarkable evolution over the years, with the adoption of fiber optics marking a significant milestone.

The Jamaican government said on Tuesday it has signed a letter of intent with Trans Americas Fiber System to connect the island to the TAM-1 subsea cable.

The Government recently signed a letter of intent with Trans Americas Fiber System for the Sub-sea Cable Project, which aims to strengthen the country's digital infrastructure and resilience.

Minister of Finance and the Public Service, Hon. Fayval Williams, says the Government's investment in sub-sea fibre-optic cable will reduce connectivity costs and facilitate business to boost ...

FibraLink proposes to construct and operate a 2,800 km fiber-optic sub-marine cable network linking Jamaica via various Bahamian Islands to the United States of America and ultimately the world.

Carrier Licence for the construction and operation of international sub-sea Fibre Optic Cable Carrier Facility (FOCCF) with landing points situated in the territories of Jamaica and elsewhere. This licence ...

The subsea cable initiative is geared toward increasing, securing, and upgrading Jamaica's worldwide fibre optic connectivity. The first purpose of the initiative is to enhance the ...

Is a broadband network that combines optical fiber and coaxial cable. Working through our subsidiaries and partners, we provide security services.

The Jamaica Fiber Optic Cable Market is poised for steady growth rate improvements from 2025 to 2029. From 1.85% in 2025, the growth rate steadily ascends to 4.01% in 2029.

Web: <https://www.tlaetsoglobal.co.za>