

Marder III in Slovak and Czechoslovak Service. The Marder self-propelled series was introduced as a German attempt to increase the mobility of towed anti-tank guns. The whole design was simple, just ...

Collection of all Slovakia military surplus gear that are available in our store. All items vintage and new one will appear in this collection.

By late war, the surviving Slovakian forces in the East had mostly been converted to construction units, as the Germans found them politically suspect.

When Slovakia were pushed into declaring their independence they were able to retain the 52 LT vz.35's that were a part of the incomplete 3rd Fast Division. It was constructed with a ...

The following 14 files are in this category, out of 14 total.

Buy In stock Used Field parka Slovak M97 camo used - damaged zippers EUR13.16 excl. VAT Buy

It was developed and adopted by the unified Czechoslovak military in 1932 to replace older foreign models. However, the specific helmets used by the Slovak Army during WWII are often referred to as ...

The equipment of the Slovak Land Forces soldiers includes: o Vzor 2007 Woodland uniform (Slovak digital camouflage pattern) o Vzor 25 Woodland uniform (Slovak MultiCam style camouflage pattern should enter service in early 2026) o Slovak modular load bearing system

This is a list of weapons and equipment currently used by the Slovak Army. A group of Slovak Army soldiers receive a report from their comrade during the opening ceremony of Slovak Shield 2018 at ...

Shop our selection of genuine Slovakian military surplus gear. If it's Slovakian, it's probably going to be Vz.97 camouflage.

It participated in the invasion of Poland and absorbed Polish territories into Slovakia's newly formed state. The Slovakian army was equipped with vz.32 helmets from the former ...

Web: <https://www.tlaletsoglobal.co.za>