

Titled "The Path Forward: Charting Uganda's Journey Towards a National Payment Switch," the speech delved into crucial aspects of the nation's payment infrastructure.

Government has finalized consultations and the drafting of the Uganda National Payments Systems Bill (Bill) which will regulate all electronic payments in Uganda.

Convergence between independent bank switch operator Interswitch and regional lender Equity bank, will increase access for Equity cardholders, to nearly 700 ATM locations countrywide.

Titled "The Path Forward: Charting Uganda's Journey Towards a National Payment Switch," the speech delved into crucial aspects of the nation's ...

Under the National Payment Systems Act, 2020, BoU recently issues licences to Airtel Uganda and MTN Uganda to operate mobile money independent from their telecom services.

The Bank of Uganda (BoU) has come under intense scrutiny following its abrupt cancellation of the National Payments Switch (BNPS) procurement process. This move has raised ...

While Uganda has experienced strong economic growth and progress in the usage of digital financial services, at least 40% of Uganda's adult population is still financially excluded, especially in rural areas.

In January, Bank of Uganda had published a list of nine firms that had been shortlisted for provision of the national payment switch. However, not much has been heard about the matter ...

Since we launched our operations in Kampala in 2010, following the acquisition of Bankom, we have continued to create multichannel digital #transaction solutions that have revolutionized the...

In 2022, Bank of Uganda (BoU) announced plans to establish a national payment switch. The plan sounded alien and patronising then. But as things cleared out, the import rallied on ...

The Independent magazine Uganda offers the latest Ugandan News, Cutting edge opinions & Analysis of Home and International Political, Business News

Web: <https://www.tlaetsoglobal.co.za>